

MEDIA RELEASE

No embargo

Date: July 1 2008

KULTURE COLLEGE

Local community group Nubian Link is recruiting up to 15 youngsters to participate in an innovative week of activities this summer. Kulture College is a summer school designed especially for African Caribbean and Dual Heritage people aged 12-15 providing them with a week of experiences that celebrates their rich cultural heritage.

Kulture College has been running successfully for 11 years and is based this year at the New Arts Exchange on Gregory Boulevard, Nottingham.

Activities include...

- “Apprentice style” business tasks
- Who am I? – an introduction to African History
- The importance of nutrition, health and physical well-being
- Creative writing and the performing arts
- Our Heroes and “She”roes
- Afrikan contribution to science inc. a trip to the National Space Centre
- The history of rhythm – from ragtime to grime
- Outdoor pursuits and sports for fun
- Interactive careers guidance
- Plus much, much more...

Kulture College starts on 28th July–August 3rd (9.30 – 4.30)

The cost for Kulture College is £30 per person inclusive of trips (discounts offered for multiple applications)

For more information visit www.nubianlink.org.uk or call Nubian Link on 07973 284 796 or 07703 004813 for an application pack or a friendly discussion with one of the facilitators.

Kulture College recruits applicants on a first come first serve basis.

Editor notes

Quotes and photos available upon request

For interviews or more information contact Jeremy Prince on 07973 284 796

Nubian Link (est. 1995) is an independent community organisation based in Nottingham that promotes educational achievement and cultural development amongst people of Afrikan descent. Visit www.nubianlink.org.uk for more information.